20) Rule 17 as drafted read with the form of the license prescribed in the Schedule leaves room for doubt whether the license is confined only to a particular public conveyance ~~or~~ kept by a particular owner or whether it is in respect of a class of such conveyance by whomsoever it is kept. Rule 17(a) prohibits the owner from employing any person as a driver except the one who has a license 'to drive that particular conveyance' and cl(b) of this rule prohibits a person to be the driver of any public conveyance ~~except in cases~~ unless he is licensed "to drive that particular conveyance"

Again the form of appln prescribed in Schedule C requires in one of its columns the name of the owner of Public Conveyance under whom the applicant will serve and numbers and class of Public Conveyance for driving which the license is req^d And the license (schedule D) that is granted in pursuance of such an appln confines it specifically in respect of:

I agree with the opinion of the Assistant Secretary Rule 12 requires that every licensed public conveyance should be given a serial number

The drivers' license according to the form given in schedule D authorises the licensee to drive and ply for hire public conveyance No of class No owned by Mr

According to Rule 17, clause (a) no owner shall allow the same to be driven by any person who is not licensed to drive that particular conveyance and according to clause (b) no person shall act as the driver of any public conveyance unless he is licensed to drive that particular conveyance The wording of Rule 17 suggests that the license possessed by a driver must authorise him to drive that particular conveyance and therefore requires modification

The letter of Government under reference suggested that it -- should be made permissible for a person holding a license to drive a public conveyance of the kind mentioned in the license to drive any public conveyance of that kind and not to limit his license to any particular vehicle This suggestion was approved by the Council on 14th May 1932 and the draft Rules were referred back to the Committee for recasting the Rules so as to embody the suggestion The Committe recast Rule 17 and certain other portion of the draft rules, suitably and as the Rule now stands the driver of a public conveyance must -- possesses a license to drive conveyances of that class This is quite in conformity with the suggestion contained in the letter of Government under reference Surely, it was not intended by Government or by the Council that a person licensed to drive a public conveyance - should be permitted to drive any kind of public conveyance A bullock cart driver cannot be expected to be able to handle a victoria It is certainly desirable that a driver's license should at least relate to a particular kind or class of vehicle The Government's letter of 20 April 1932 itself refers to representations made by a deputation to the effect that the Rules should be modified so as to enable a licensed driver to drive any vehicle of the kind mentioned in the license The Council approved of this suggestion on 14-5-1932 The Rules drafted by the Committee are in conformity with this resolution There is - nothing which the Committee need do in the matter I am therefore returning the file without placing it before the Committee The matter may be placed before the next meeting of the Council for discussion prescribed in the Schedule, leaves room for doubt whether the license is confined only to a particular public conveyance kept by a particular owner or whether it is in respect of a class of such conveyance by whomsoever it is kept Rule 17 (a) prohibits the owner from employing any person as a driver except the one who has a license "to drive that particular conveyance" and cl (b) of that rule prohibits a person to be the driver of any public conveyance unless he is licensed "to drive that particular

2 Again the form of application prescribed in Schedule (C) provides for the entry in one of its columns of the name of the owner of Public Conveyance under whom the applicant will serve and the number and class of public conveyance for driving which the license is required And the
